Cairo, Ili., April 6.—The river at Cairo still marks 54.7, with a slight rise in sight, Local Porecaster Lindley predicts a stage of 55 feet will be reached and maintained. and maintained for more than a week by the rise coming down the Mississippi River. The levees are constantly pa-troled, and every precaution is being to protect the city.

The back water from the river has flooded the village of Mounds. The levees at Mound City are in excellent condition, and there is no doubt now that that city will escape inundation. The little city of Wickliffe, Ky., on the hills six miles down the river, has opened wide its gates to the flood suf-ferers, and 2,700 refugees are being cared Fands or Mock Patti.

Pasadena, April 6.—"Patti," a singing burre, which retains its braying propensities, although twice subjected to surgical operations, has been the subject of a complaint filed with the police by residents of North Robles Avenue.

According to the complaint, the noise-making quadruped is gwned by William Chester. Nightly solos, in which Patti evolutes from deep basso to a crescendo C, much to the discomfort and disturbed sleep of neighbors, is given as cause for the protest. The police are asked to compel the owner of Patti either to gas her at night or to remove here to some other neighborhood.

OLD PASTOR PRESENT AT CHURCH SERVICES

Rev. C. B. Bagby, Founder of Ninth Street Christian Church, Assists at Anniversary.

Members of the Ninth Street Christian Church observed the twenty-second anniversary of the organization of their church yesterday with special services morning and evening. At the morning service they listened to an account of the early days of the congregation, from its first paster, Rev. C. B. Bagby, now of Baltimore.

Dr. Bagby preached from the sam text that he had used twenty-two years before, upon the founding of the church. He told his hearers that there were eighty-four present upon the opening Sunday. Yesterday morning there were 20 in the church.

Dr. George A. Miller, the present pasor, who has been with the church for tor, who has been with the church for more than six years, preached at the evening services upon "The Book of Psaims." His prediction that the congregation would subscribe the remainder of the church debt of $15,000, which amounted to $2,200, was royally fulfilled. The whole subscription totaled $2,500.
